

This is for promoting the show itself, not any one specific episode. It assumes you are going to put this on Spotify, but if you put it somewhere else, change that to whatever it is.

Record yourself reading these lines as a voice-over:

It's Santa Fe Bites!

The only podcast that thinks your Mom makes the best chili.

Watch our episodes streaming on Spotify now.

Then, play the jingle .mp3 that is here:

These are alternative taglines you can record if you want to make multiple versions of the show-promo

- The only podcast that thinks your Mom makes the best chili.
- The red and green podcast that goes great with everything.
- You heard it here first, cuz we just made it up!
- Like burritos and prostitutes, we're stuffed and smothered.
- Where other podcasters get their big break.

- Not responsible for "too-hot" chili.
- The most explosive thing to come out of New Mexico since The Manhattan Project.
- Zozobra Approved
- The only podcast that got ticketed for cruising the plaza.
- The podcast whose friend died in high school.

- The podcast with a dream-catcher on the rearview mirror of its outback
